

Women Belong
In History Books

COLLEGE OF ARTS + SCIENCES

eliminating racism empowering women
ywca
Mohawk Valley

Women in the Mohawk Valley

A HISTORY CONFERENCE

MAY 18-20, 2018

Join us in supporting this 3-day history conference aimed to highlight the role of women in local history and promote women's issues in the greater Mohawk Valley. Speakers will include experts in women's studies and history, and community leaders that are currently shaping the Mohawk Valley.

FRIDAY

Conference Kick Off at Fort Schuyler Club, 5-7pm, with a tour of the renovations of the New Century Club across the street with Bowers Development

SATURDAY

Speakers present a variety of topics at the Oneida County History Center in Utica from 9:00am - 5:00pm with an optional dinner in the evening at Club Monarch in Yorkville with Keynote Speaker Trinh Troung

SUNDAY

*A guided bus tour with authors of Women Belong in History Books.
Departs from and returns to Bagg Commemorative Park. Enjoy seeing many sites relevant to women's history around the Greater Mohawk Valley.*

Attend all three days, or choose your favorite event.

Great for history lovers, educators and students.

Speaker information, detailed schedules and online registration:

www.WomenInTheMohawkValley.com

Sponsored by:

Access our Facebook Event from the Oneida County History Center Facebook page